Preferences

Preferences

IGB offers many options to customize track appearance, add new data servers, and change data loading behavior.

Most customization options are available via the Preferences window which contains several tabbed panels devoted to different types of preferences.

To open the Preferences window

- Choose File > Preferences or
- Click the Preferences shortcut icon in the Toolbar

The following links contain descriptions of each tab in the Preferences window.